

Exciting Job Opportunity at the Highlanders' Museum

Highland Visitor Attraction

The Board of the Highlanders Museum (Queen's Own Highlanders Collection) requires a General Manager to lead what is an independent, Military Museum. The Museum houses the collection of The Queen's Own Highlanders (Seaforth and Camerons) and is based in Fort George, Ardersier, near Inverness, a visitor attraction which attracts approximately 50,000 visitors a year.

The successful candidate should have excellent leadership and management skills, a proven track record of income generation, strategic planning, marketing, PR, communication and IT skills, financial management and stakeholder engagement.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right candidate to build on and develop this accredited Museum and to maintain the Museum's existing 5 * Visit Scotland rating.

Reporting to the Chairman of the Museum Board, the successful candidate will be responsible for all aspects of the Museum's services, policies and programming, with oversight of its trading company and brand development. This is an exciting opportunity to make a significant mark in the museum and visitor attraction world.

Closing date for applications: midday on 8th April 2024. All applications will be acknowledged.

Interviews: 15th April 24 at Fort George in person / by video link.

Please note that a job description is available on request by emailing the Museum Director.

Salary: Circa £30k, depending on the skills and experience of the successful candidate.

Applications with a short covering letter, no longer than two pages and a CV should be submitted to director@thehighlandersmuseum.com Alternatively, postal applications can be sent to:

Major (Retd) John Bailey MBE, Interim Director, The Highlanders Museum, Fort George, Ardersier, Inverness. IV2 7TD, Tel: 01667 457787, Mob: 07711578517